Dear Prof. Kayadibi,

The International Centre for Aceh and Indian Ocean Studies (ICAIOS) is a joint effort between three universities in Aceh (Syiah Kuala University, IAIN Ar-Raniry, and University of Malikussaleh), the Government of Aceh, and a number of international academic institutions. The ICAIOS office is located within the PPISB building of the Syiah Kuala University campus in Banda Aceh. ICAIOS offers research methodology and thematic research training for local scholars, as well as pre-departure training for Acehnese students going to study abroad. It also enhances research capacity by facilitating international cooperation of academic community in Aceh and Indonesia.

One of our activities is a regular round-table discussion with expert from fields of significant importance to Aceh and the Indian Ocean regions. In this regard we would like to invite you to give a talk on "Turk-Aceh Connections: Challenges and Opportunities" at ICAIOS on Tuesday, January 31, 2012. We would also like to invite you to introduce your newly published book "Ottoman Coonection to the Malay World: Islam, Law, and Society" to our academic audience in Banda Aceh. This event will be held at ICAIOS conference room in Darussalam Campus, Banda Aceh.

We, however, are not able to provide you with any financial support and remuneration. Therefore, you will have to be responsible for your own expenses throughout your visit to our centre in Banda Aceh, Indonesia.

We thank you for your kind cooperation and attention. Should you need further information, please do not hesitate to contact me at saiful.mahdi@acehresearch.org.

Yours Sincerely,

Saiful Mahdi, Ph.D (Cornell)
Director of ICAIOS
Universitas Syiah Kuala, Darussalam, Banda Aceh
